GENERAL OBREGON VOICES OPTIMISM

Has Highest Hopes Matters Will Reach Successful Culmination

MUCH BETTER FEELING

Mexicans Believe American Troops Will Be Withdrawn in About Two Months

MAY END CONFERENCES TODAY

EL PASO, Texas, May 3—General Alvaro Obregon, Mexican minister of war tonight issued a statement to the Associated Press, in which he said:

"As a result of the conference yesterday with General Scott the atmosphere seems now completely cleared up. There is a much better feeling between Americans and Mexicans and all tension seems vanished.

"An agreement has not been reached but everything is progressing favorably and I have the highest hopes that matters will reach a successful culmination."

It was reported on good authority tonight that General Obregon had received assurances that the terms of the tentative agreement would be acceptable to General Carranza.

A high Carranza official who is close to General Obregon said:

"The Mexican military element who have been in a state of tension ever since they started for the border, are now completely tranquil. Since the news of a dignified settlement of the issues at stake between the United States and Mexico began to leak out today, a very marked change has been apparent.

"Altho the protocol has not yet been ratified by the respective governments they have every hope that the danger of a rupture has passed."

Mexicans believe that the withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico will take place in about two months, it was learned here tonight. American officers will make no comment on the subject. The Mexicans said that in view of the dispositions to be made by General Alvaro Obregon in co-operating with the tentative agreement made with General Hugh L. Scott the hunting down the bandit groups in Chihuahua and Durango can scarcely take more than that period of time.

On assurance from General Carranza that the bandits are dispersed the northward movement of American troops will attain full speed and it will not be long until the last trooper crosses over the international boundary line.

In the meantime it was pointed out there will be constant movements northward of American detachments so that when the final order for withdrawal comes there will be only a part of the present expeditionary force left on Mexican soil.

To Hold Another Conference

Answers to the long despatches sent today to Washington by General Scott and to Queretaro by General Obregon were not expected to be received before tomorrow. In case the terms settled upon by General Scott and General Obregon are approved by President Wilson and General Carranza the present negotiations will practically be concluded altho formality of another conference will be gone thru with either tomorrow night or Saturday.

It is probable that no American troop movements will be begun until the formal signing of an agreement by the two governments at least untill General Carranza has signified his acceptance of the stipulated conditions by the Washington government. After that, however, the Mexican and American troops are expected to begin at once a co-operative campaign that will effectively stamp out the various bandit groups.

It is generally understood here that the first step to be taken will be a gradual retirement northward of the American forces while the Carranza troops plunge into the campaign against the Villa bandits.

Columns now in the neighborhood of San Antonio, Chichuachua, will fall back first to Guerrero. Later the Guerrero detachments will proceed to Namiquipa. From here regiments will be gradually detached and transferred to Colonia Dublan until finally the whole force occupies a restricted zone along the border.

It is regarded as altogether probable that a certain percentage of the troops will recross the border some time before the word comes that the Carranza government has accomplished its misison.

While the Carranza forces are sweeping thru southern Chihuahua and Durango the Americans will be looking after stray groups operating to the north. It is understood that General Obregon is pledged to throw every available ounce of

NATIONAL GUARD PATROLS STREETS IN STRIKE ZONES

Plants of American Steel Wire Company and the Edgar Thomson Works Resume Operations.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 3—Martial law practically prevailed in East Pittsburgh and Braddock tonight, where yesterday there were serious strike riots. Detachments of the Pennsylvania National Guard patrolled the streets in the strike zones but no disorder was reported. The plants of the American Steel Wire company and the Edgar Thomson works of the Carnegie Steel company resumed operations tonight but large forces of police were stationed inside the gates ready for an emergency.

Three of the four troops of cavalry ordered out for strike duty last night by Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh have already arrived.

Burgess W. Blair Miller of North Braddock this afternoon discharged all but one member of the police force of the borough, consisting of nine men, because of their refusal yesterday to attempt to quell the riot at the Edgar Thomson Works. The only man retained was home sick at the time of the trouble.

Strike leaders today quietly summoned the English speaking strikers to a conference for the purpoe of dicussing plans for the opening of peace negotiations with the officials of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company.

CONSERVATION CONGRESS ENDORSES WATERPOWER BILL

Gifford Pinchot Vainly Opposes Action—Charges that Convention Was Packed by Power Interests Are Made and Denied.

Washington, May 3.—Advocates of the Shields waterpower bill pending in congress won their fight in the national conservation congress today when the congress voted to adopt a majority committee report endorsing the measure. Gifford Pinchot, who at the last congress three years ago defeated a proposal somewhat similar, vainly opposed today's action. Charges that the convention was packed by the power interests were made and denied.

The vote 116 to 39, came after the divided committee report had been debated all afternoon. The minority report opposed endorsement of any legislation and demanded a declaration of principles holding that power sites shall be retained by the government and that all waterpower development shall be under public control.

Mr. Pinchot declared special interests were trying to mould the congress into a lobby for waterpower legislation.

"This shows to what lengths the interests are prepared to go to further legislation to serve their own particular interests," said he. "This congress should represnt he real conservation of the country who want legislation that will do the most for the public good and will serve the purpose of no special set of men."

G. E. Condra of Lincoln, Neb., chairman of the executive committee and others denied that any interests had been shown favors in naming delegates or committees.

MICHIGAN REPUBLICANS ENDORSE JUSTICE HUGHES FOR PRESIDENT

Dispute Over Endorsement Is Disposed of by Compromise at Meeting of Resolution Committee.

Lansing, Mich., May 3.—Republicans of Michigan in state convention here today endorsed Justice Charles E. Hughes for president. A dispute over the endorsement of Justice Hughes, which threatened to cause an argument on the floor of the convention was disposed of by compromise at the meeting of the resolutions committee.

Wayne county delegates including those from Detroit wanted the committee to recommend Hughes as the most desirable candidate. Six of the thirteen members of the committee urged that no particular candidate be mentioned. After a vigorous debate it was agreed to submit a resolution recommending that the Michigan delegation to the Chicago convention support Hughes "or some other good Republican," after the first ballot. The delegation, as a result of the recent state primary must cast its first ballot for Henry Ford of Detroit.

WILLIAM LORIMER IS FOUND NOT GUILTY

JURY IS OUT A LITTLE MORE THAN SIX HOURS

Verdict is the Same on Both the Charge of Conspiracy to Defraud and That of Embezzlement—Lorimer Promises to Make Losses of Depositors Good.

Chicago, May 4—The jury in the Lorimer case returned a verdict of not guilty at 12:30 this morning.

The jury was out a little more than six hours. The jury in its verdict held that Lorimer had no part in any violation of the banking laws in connection with the career of the LaSalle street bank or of the criminal laws in the bank's failure and that he had no knowledge of such violations.

The verdict was the same on both the charge of conspiracy to defraud and that of embezzlement, the judge having instructed the jury that a separate verdict on each charge would have to be returned.

As the clerk read the verdict, a shout went up in the court room and there was a rush of spectators to shake the hand of Lorimer as he stood smiling in front of the judge's bench.

After the confusion had subsided somewhat Lorimer addressed the jury in a trembling voice. After thanking them he said:

"I want to say to you that in giving me liberty the people who deposited money in the LaSalle Street Bank, beginning with those who can least afford to lose, will have all of my services, all of the money I can earn with the exception of that necessary to support my family, until every obligation has been discharged and every dollar has been paid back."

Each member of the jury, questioned as to the number of ballots taken, said that it had been agreed no information should be given out as to the proceedings in the jury room.

CONSCRIPTION BILL PASSES FIRST READING IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

Debate Reveals No Deadly Opposition to the Measure.

London, May 3—The government's military bill for immediate general compulsion passed its first reading in the house of commons today.

Its passage was loudly cheered.

The debate revealed no very deadly opposition to the compulsion bill. The only interesting point was the suggestion by Colonel Craig that Ireland should be included.

Walter Hume Long, president of the local government board who was sponsor for the bill replied to this suggestion that there was no objection, if the nationalist members approved the idea and it found an echo in Ireland. Mr. Long hoped that the bill would be passed next week.

Speaking with reference to the provisions of the bill Premier Asquith said that youths reaching the age of 18 would be given a month's grace to enlist voluntarily. The same exemptions would be given as under the original bill.

A special reserve will be formed of men continuing in civil employment, who will be immediately available for service in case of emergency.

George Nicol Barnes, one of the labor leaders of in the house, expressed strong approval of the measure. He said that if the country had known the task in front of the allies eighteen months ago it would have accepted compulsory service then.

LIEUT. ROBERT FAY OCCUPIES WITNESS STAND IN OWN DEFENSE

NEW YORK, May 3.—Lieutenant Robert Fay of the German army on trial here with Walter Scholes and Paul Daeche, charged with conspiring to destroy ships carrying munitions to the entente allies, occupied the witness stand in his own defense thruout the entire session of the federal district court today. He denied that he had any intention of destroying vessels, but admitted he had invented a device to attach to rudders of munition-carrying craft which would incapacitate them.

Daeche, he said, supplied him with explosives believing that they were being used by him for experimental purposes only. Daeche knew nothing, Fay added, of an alleged plot to blow up ships.

PROTESTS VEHEMENTLY AGAINST SINKING OF BRAZILIAN STEAMER

RIO JANERIO, May 3—The Journal Do Commercio in an editorial, protests vehemently against the sinking of the Brazilian steamer Rio Branco, anouncement of which was made yesterday. It considers it impossible that America will continue to witness with folded arms the continuation of these tragedies.

The paper suggests co-operation with the United States saying:

"The whole of America ought to reinforce the action of the United States. To leave the United States to act alone would be equivalent to the collapse of the Pan-American idea. Germany would be obliged to capitulate before the unanimous protestation of the peoples against her manner of making war."

The announcement of the sinking of the Brazilian Steamer Rio Branco, which was received in a London despatch gave no details as to the cause of the disaster.

EXECUTE LEADERS IN REBELLION IN IRELAND

FOUR ARE PUT TO DEATH AND THREE IMPRISONED

Birrell Admits Error in Underestimating Sinn Fein Movement and Resigns—Ginnell Greets Announcement of Executions with the Cry of "Huns."

London, May 3.—The announcement in the house of commons today by the prime minister that the leaders in the rebellion in Ireland had been court-martialed and summarily executed created a profound feeling, altho this action by the government was expected. Premier Asquith, at the same time, announced that Sir Roger Casement, who was one of the prime movers in the uprising and who is now a prisoners in the tower of London, would be tried with the utmost expedition. Those executed today were Patrick Pearse, whose title was "provisional president" of Ireland; James Connolly, who was styled "commandant general of the Irish Republican army." Thomas J. Clark and Thomas MacDonough. Three others were sentenced to three years imprisonment.

Augustine Birrell made a brief statement and admitted his error as chief secretary for Ireland in underestimating the Sinn Fein movement, adding that when he was informed that the insurrection had been put down he had tendered his resignation to the prime minister and that it had been accepted.

Laurence Ginnell, member of the north division of Westmeath, who is classed as a Nationalist, but follows the leadership of no party, greeted the announcement of the premier that some of the leaders of the Irish rebellion had been shot, with the cry of "huns."

For some minutes he prevented Mr. Birrell from making a personal statement and gave notice that he would move a resolution calling attention to the shooting of "innocent men by this hunnish government."

Mr. Birrell when he got a hearing, said he would have an opportunity as a private member of taking part in the debate on the Irish rising.

Patrick Pearse, the "provisional president of Ireland" was about 33 years old and was known in Ireland as an authority in Gaelic literature. For some time he was editor of the Gaelic Journal in Dublin, and later founded St. Endas School, which he conducted up to the time of the Sinn Fein rebellion. Pearse had many friends in the United States and he lectured in this country. He was the son of an Englishman, but was himself born and educated in Dublin. He was unmarried.

James Connolly lived for several years in New York where he was active as a Socialist and labor agitator. He returned to Ireland about five years ago to aid in organizing the Irish labor party. Connolly was about 50 years of age and was self-educated. He was editor of a labor paper in Dublin called "The Irish Worker." He was the father of eight children all of whom survive him, as well as his widow. Thomas MacDonough was a close associate of Pearse's. He was for some time assistant professor of English literature in the National University of Ireland but resigned to become assitant to Pearse in St. Endas School.

Thomas J. Clark was one of the leaders in the Fenian conspiracy of the early eighties. He was arrested and sentenced to life imprisonment, but was released after serving fourteen years. After a short visit to America he returned to Dublin, where he opened a tobacco store. Clark married the daughter of Mayor John Daly of Limerick, another of the Fenian leaders. He is survived by his widow and four boys.

REPORT PROGRESS OF METHODISM IN CHINA, KOREA AND JAPAN

Flurry is Caused by Introduction of a Resolution Expressing Regret Because Wines Were Reported to be Served at Dinners at White House.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May 3—Reports of the progress of Methodism in China, Korea and Japan were presented to the Methodist general conference tonight by two of the missionary bishops of the church, W. S. Lewis for China and M. C. Harris for Korea and Japan.

The great outstanding need in China, Bishop Lewis said is for a standardized and efficient educational system.

Some little flurry was caused by the introduction of a resolution expressing regret because wines were reported to be served at dinners at the white house. The resolution would have the conference appeal to President Wilson to "abolish the wine cup for all functions over which he has control," and would request the president to indorse and support pending measures for nation-wide prohibition. It was introduced by Rev. James W. Anderson of Oregon, Mo., and was endorsed by all the delegates from the Missouri conference. This resolution was referred without comment to the committee on temperance. Altho the election of several new bishops will not come before the conference for some time, it is expected that eight ministers will be elevated to the Episcopacy and among those whose candidacies are being promoted are Rev. Charles Howard Locke of Los Angeles, Rev. C. B. Mitchell of Chicago, Rev. F. W. Luce of Cleveland, O., Rev. Joshua Stansfield of Indianapolis, Rev. Herbert Welch, Professor of Ohio Wesleyan University, Rec. Horace L. Jacobs of Williamsport and Rev. Benjamin Young of Topeka, Kans.

GERMAN REPLY IS EXPECTED SOON

Washington Despatches Say Demands Will Be Strictly Adhered To

EXECUTE IRISH LEADERS

Asquith States Sir Roger Casement Will Be Tried With the Utmost Expedition

TAKE GERMAN POSITIONS

BULLETIN

BERNE, May 3—via Paris, May 4—Germany's reply to the American note will be handed to Ambassador Gerard tomorrow afternoon says a despatch received here from Berlin quoting the Lokal Anzeiger as authority for the statement.

Germany's answer to the American note will soon be delivered into the hands of the American ambassador in Berlin for transmission to Washington according to unofficial advices from Berlin. What the tenor of the note is has not been made public. It will however, according to Berlin despatches, make clear Germany's position, giving definitely the nature of instructions to be sent to submarine commanders and other data from which President Wilson can judge the situation.

Meantime President Wilson, Secretary of State Lansing and Colonel E. M. House are understood to have discussed fully the submarine issue. The American demands on Germany, Washington despatches say, will be strictly adhered to. Unless the German note promises that there will be an immediate cessation in the sinking of peaceful ships, no proposal made by Germany will be accepted.

Several of the leaders of the Irish revolt have been put to death in London after asummary court martial, and Premier Asquith has announced to parliament that Sir Roger Casement, who was recently captured while trying to land arms on the coast of Ireland from a German ship, will be tried with the utmost expedition. The situation in Ireland is daily improvng. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland has resigned. He has acknowledged that he underestimated the Sinn Fein movement and the possibility of disturbances in Ireland.

No fighting of great importance is reported from any of the battle fronts.

On the sector of LeMort Homme, northeast of Verdun, the French have taken additional German positions in a brilliantly executed attack and captured in the operation about a hundred prisoners and four machine guns. On the remainder of front in France and Belgium nothing but artillery duels have been in progress. In the Adamello sector of the Austro-Italian front the Austrians and Italians still are engaged in the hard fighting that has been in progress for several days with no apparent changes in positions reported.

A German aeroplane has dropped bombs on Deal, England. Some material damage was done but only one man is reported to have been injured. The aeroplane escaped.

May be Delivered Thursday.

Berlin, May 3.—By wireless to The Associated Press, via Sayville—The German reply to the American note on submarine warfare may be expected momentarily. It now appears however, that Thursday may be the day on which it will be handed to the American embassy.

Following the submission of the German reply the center of gravity in the situation, it is considerd here, will rest in Washington where it must be decided whether the proposal which Germany makes meets the conditions of the last paragraph of the American note.

The conference of high German authorities at headquarters has been included and Dr. Bethmann-Hollweg the imperial chancellor it is understood will start this afternoon for Berlin. Ambassador Gerard visited Foreign Minister Von Jagow here this morning, but continued absolutely uncommunicative on the situation. The foreign office also declined to have anything to say on the subject.

Wilson, Lansing and House Confer.

Washington, May 3.—President Wilson, Secretary Lansing and Col. E. M. House, held a long conference tonight at the white house. It is understood that the submarine situation was discussed but Secretary Lansing said later that he had received no word from Berlin regarding the character of the German note which press despatches said probably would be handed to Ambassador Gerard tomorrow. The president and his advisers are keep-

False Prophecy.

Congressman Elza Williams of Pittsfield, who is a candidate for Democratic nomination for the governorship, is quoted as saying that there is a fine chance for Illinois remaining in the Democratic column this fall. The congressman is entitled to another guess. He has declared that Democrats of Illinois approve President Wilson's course and are endorsing his foreign policy, in fact, that the said Democrats are united and harmonious in every way while Republicans are hopelessly divided.

No doubt Mr. Williams has wished this condition so hard that he has really persuaded himself that such are the facts, but at the present time there is absolutely no reason for his prophecy that Republicans are hopelessly separated. The party differences are not fundamental, they are merely personal, and long before election day will be gone and forgotten. Illinois has a normal Republican majority of about 150,000 and the man who predicts that this is a year for Democratic success is a false prophet.

Rainey Seeks Re-Nomination.

Congressman Henry T. Rainey has announced that he will be a candidate for re-election as a representative in congress of this, the twentieth Illinois congressional district. Congressman Rainey has been a member of the lower house for the past twelve years and has succeeded in securing recognition from his party which has given him the important place as a member of the ways and means committee. His conduct has been consistent with Democratic precepts and he stands well with his constituents in this strongly Democratic district.

It is certainly an evidence of the awakened intelligence of the Democrats of the district that they no longer follow the policy of electing a new man to congress every two years. The time was when changes were made just about that frequently, with the result that a congressman had hardly learned to find his way around in the house corridors until he was relegated to the ranks of citizenship by having some other worthy twentieth district resident chosen to succeed him.

A Strong Suffrage Plea.

The woman's pageant which is to be given in St. Louis tomorrow is for the purpose of raising a building fund, but no doubt many of the women most largely interested expect also to thus present to the public an argument in favor of woman's suffrage by showing the development which has come in woman's estate within a very few years. The star role will be "Intelligence" and various groups will represent certain epochs of history in which women have played important parts. First will be shown the day of the cave man and then Greek and Roman periods, and finally as the climax, America will be seen as the country where men and women are working side by side, equal in responsibility. No more striking way could be chosen to show the development or the justice of it, and St. Louis women will accomplish vastly more by the pageant method than would be true with militant methods in years of work.

The Precedent Is Found.

Notwithstanding Justice Hughes' unqualified statements that he will not be a candidate for Republican presidential nomination, and the doubt that exists whether or not he will accept the nomination if tendered, the Hughes talk will not down. Now it is said that a student of political history has found a precedent which will make it entirely proper for the supreme court justice to become the nominee. This student recalled the historical fact that Mr. Justice McLean, a member of the supreme court, was an avowed candidate for nomination by the Republican national convention which met in Philadelphia in 1856. Justice McLean had been a cabinet officer under Monroe and John Quincy Adams and was appointed to the supreme bench by President Jackson, serving for thirty-one years with great credit. It is related further that in those days there were good men who believed that no supreme court justice should be a candidate for political nomination or political office. But then, just as now, there were good men who believed that a justice should not be barred from political preferment. In the latter class was Abraham Lincoln, whom history shows wrote letters urging a number of congressmen to support McLean for the presidency. In the national convention General Fremont was nominee but Justice McLean was not without friends, for on the first ballot the vote was Fremont 359, McLean 196, Abraham Lincoln 110.

The Larger View.

A well known citizen said yesterday, based on years of observation, he believed the Journal had recently voiced Jacksonville's greatest need in commenting upon the lack of co-operative spirit. He went on to express the optimistic view that prospects are constantly growing better for a realization of the greatly desired spirit of working together, and declared that he has seen in younger citizens the evidence of a desire to work in harmony in boosting their home city.

Another citizen finds the greatest value in the chautauqua movement to be the community spirit that it fosters. The lack of agreement which has been marked in former years probably requires educational work before it is thoroly uprooted, and the chautauqua movement is certainly well worth while if it does tend to impress upon the people the great need there is for co-operative effort. It makes little difference how the transformation comes, but the best way to accomplish it will be for each and every citizen to indulge in a little self-examination and determine that if necessary self will be forgotten, if that course will be for the common good and result in a forward march for Jacksonville.

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

AFTER DEATH

I do not know just what may hap, when I go tumbling off the map, into the outer void; I hope to draw a pair of wings, and crown and robe, and kindred things, and harp of celluloid. But little do I walk the floor, or lose a chance to sleep and snore, by worrying my head about the things that may befall when I step off this whirling ball, and line up with the dead. I think I've all a man should need, in this, the simple little creed, that's pasted in my lid: "With all your fellowmen be square; be kind and just to all, nor care a cent what others did." If one is square and just and kind, I don't believe he'll be behind, when they distribute crowns; he'll be a credit to the globe, and he will swap for snowy robe, his workworn handmedowns. Religion's tangled, teased and vext, with dogma and conflicting text, by sages splitting hairs; and all that fellows really need is just that simple little creed, to climb the golden stairs.

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

May 4, 1871.—The inhabitants of Kaskaskia petitioned the governor of Virginia for redress of grievances; in spite of their friendly reception of the Americans and their desire to unite with the cause of the latter, they declared that the Virginian troops mistreated them so that they were in a distressing condition.

The days and weeks are passing with the fact becoming more and more apparent that no Republican has certain claim to the presidential nomination. There are a number of candidates whose ability is entirely within the range of the requirements of the presidency, and it is really fortunate for the party that the general feeling exists that the purpose of the delegates should and will be to get together, confer and then make the choice which will give the party the greatest strength. There has been some newspaper talk of various delegations to be "swung" to this or that candidate, but these rumors when sifted down are found to come from Democratic sources.

Governor Dunne has addressed another letter to Sheriff White at Murphysboro asking about the arrangements for the hanging of Elston Scott, convicted of murder there months ago. Judging from the sheriff's past evidences of obstinacy, his answer will be the same as before, without the definite assurance to the governor that there will not be a large number of witnesses at the Scott execution in violation of legal provisions. Then another reprieve will be given Scott. This "battledore and shuttlecock" argument between the governor and the sheriff has gone on long enough and it is about time for the governor to arrive at some plan whereby the state can relieve the county of the execution arrangements. The series of reprieves given the prisoner is serving to diminish respect for law and justice. Sheriff White's course at a previous hanging when he swore in a thousand or more deputies so they could witness the hanging, was a violation of the law and an offense to decency.

The English government's conscription bill seems now to have a chance of passage despite the vigorous and continued fight that has been made upon it. Government insistence upon the need of the bill is the best evidence of influential opposition to war. The situation makes the course for England doubly hard, and while war sometimes adds to the cohesiveness of a nation as the citizens are bound together in defense against a common foe, this situation does not hold true in England. The war is not only causing John Bull terrific losses of property and life, but is making internal dissentions which it will take many years to obliterate. Russia and France seem to be more fortunate in this regard, at least all accounts which come to the outside world tell only of united sentiment, a citizenship ready to give up life and all for the successful termination of the war.

MUSIC TEACHERS PROGRAM TODAY INCLUDES LOCAL ARTISTS NAMES

Jacksonville Claims Mrs. Lois Baptiste Harsch and William Preston Phillips, Well Known in Music World.

The recital in the program of the Illinois Music Teachers association this afternoon is of more than ordinary interest to local music lovers. The recital will have two musicians who began their careers in Jacksonville, Mrs. Lois Baptiste Harsch and

Mrs. Lois Baptist Harsch, Pianist.

William Preston Phillips. Both of these artists are considered Jacksonville products because their first work was done in this city. Mrs. Harsch's first work was with Miss Lula D. Hay.

Mrs. Harsch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lois Baptiste of this city. She graduated from Illinois Conservatory and took post graduate work at Illinois Woman's college. She took up teaching and is now a valued member of the faculty of Peoria Music college. Mrs. Harsch after leaving Jacksonville has kept up her study and is a pupil of Madame Bloomfield Zeisler of Chicago. She is considered a performer of unusual merit.

William Preston is the son of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Phillips and has achieved fame in other cities than Jacksonville. He studied here with W. B. Olds and Mrs. Hartman. He then went abroad and studied with Oscar Seagle in Paris and London and with Allen Gill in London. He also studied with William Beard in Chicago. After his return to this country Mr. Phillips appeared in Chautauqua engagements. Last Novemebr he appeared in a recital at the Congress hotel in Chicago. At the present time Mr. Phillips is teaching in Bloomington and Peoria. Local music lovers will look forward with pleasure to the appearance of Mrs. Harsch and Mr. Phillips this afternoon.

Mr. William Preston Phillips, Baritone.

Wallace Grieves, violinist, will also be on the program. Mr. Grieves won the national contest of the federation of clubs at Los Angeles, Calif., last summer. John Doane of Evanston will be the accompanist.

MISS MARIE ANGELO MARRIED HERE TO CLYDE M. FANNING

Well Known Murrayville Young People Wed—Will Spend Summer in North Dakota.

The marriage of Clyde M. Fanning and Miss Marie Angelo, both of Murrayville, was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. G. W. Flagge, at the parsonage of Centenary church. The young people were attended only by Mrs. Charles Riggs, a long time friend of the bride. Altho the wedding was expected to occur some time this spring or summer, the friends of the young couple were not apprised of the exact date and so the announcement of the ceremony will come as a surprise to most of them.

Mrs Fanning is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Angelo, well known residents of Murrayville, and all of her life has been spent in that village. She graduated from the Murrayville high school in 1909 and subsequently taught for a year. Ill health made it necessary for her to give up teaching work. She has for a number of years been actively identified with the Sunday school and Epworth League of the Murrayville Methodist church and has been especially popular with the young people of her home town. Mr. Fanning is rightly accounted very fortunate in winning a bride of such acknowledged personal charm and strength of character.

Mr. Fanning is a son of J. W Fanning, who has for years been rated as one of the substantial farmers of the Murrayville community and within the past year he has given up farm work and established his residence in Murrayville. After completing his education, Mr. Fanning devoted some time to farming and in recent years has played professional base ball during the season, and has made a record which has given him recognition with those interested in this great American sport. This athletic ability seems to run in the Fanning family, as this new benedict is one of three brothers playing baseball. For several seasons he has been with the Fordville, N. Dakota, team, and the coming week he and his bride will leave for that city, to remain until next fall, when they will return to Murrayville. Mr. Fanning is highly esteemed by all who know him, and is rightly accounted a young man of stability and worth. Not only the people of Murrayville but the friends of the young people in Jacksonville and other parts of the county will join in extending their sincere good wishes.

JUDGE ORDERS SUPERINTENDENT TO PAY SCHOOL TUITION

The Educational Press says:

It will be interesting and instructive to county superintendens to know that Judge Slusser, who issued the first temporary injunction restraining County Superintendent Morgan of Dupage County, from paying the high school tuition out of the county distributive fund, has ordered him to go ahead and pay the tuition as required by law. His order is given as follows:

"This cause coming on to be heard this 10th day of April, 1916, by consent of the parties thereto; and it appearing to the Court that the defendant herein now has in his possession large sums of money representing the county's share of the State School Fund, and that if the disbursement thereof should be delayed pending the disposition of this case great inconvenience, uncertainty and loss would be suffered by the various school districts thruout the county.

"It is ordered that said county superintendent of schools be and is hereby authorized to disburse the funds now in his hands and which he may receive during the current month in the same manner as it would be disbursed if this suit were not pending and if no question had been raised as to the validity of the act passed in 1915 and referred to in the pleadings herein."

Willard Reaches the Million Mark

On Saturday, April the 8th, the total production of automobile lighting and starting batteries by the Willard Storage Battery Company of Cleveland reached the total of one million. The production in the immense factor of this company has grown by leaps and bounds during the past year since completion of the new plant

The long experience of the Willard Company in manufacturing storage batteries is largely responsible for so many car builders making Willard their choice. That their judgment is good has been strongly evidenced by the year in and year out satisfaction reported by car owners.

This means satisfaction not only in the battery itself, but in the service which is afforded by over 725 Willard Service Stations.

To increase this owner satisfaction, the Willard Company originated a unique plan of giving free inspection, once every month to any car owner, regardless of the battery he used. This plan has worked out very successfully and has been followed by a great many other storage battery manufacturers.

GOV. DUNNE MAY NOT SEEK RENOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR

Story From Washington is That Executive is Seriously Considering Not Making the Race.

Washington, May 3 (Special)—Governor Dunne may not be a candidate for renomination in Illinois. The Governor is feeling out the opposition to him thruout the state and at the last moment he may step down and out of the gubernatorial race.

This question has come to several Illinois Democrats here with in the last 24 hours. While not vouching for its correctness they say their informants are reliable men and significance of it lies in the fact that similar reports came from widely separated sections of the state.

Friends of Congressman at Large William Elsa Williams a candidate for the nomination, both here and in Illinois are telling Mr. Williams that his chances for the nomination have improved materially within the past week.

Mr. Williams says he thinks the prospects of the state remaining in the Democratic column this fall are most satisfactory. The Democrats of the state approve the course of President Wilson and endorse his foreign policy which has kept the country out of war, he says. They are united and optomistic while the Republicans are divided and cannot get together. He believes that state issues will merge in the national fight and state differences will be forgotten.

Jacksonville Lodge No. 570 A. F. & A. M. will hold a stated meeting tonight at 7:30. Work. Visiting brethern welcome.

APPROXIMATELY HUNDRED THOUSAND ON STRIKE.

New York, May 3.—Approximately 100,000 persons employed in various trades in this city now are on strike according to estimates made tonight, and thousands more are threatening to quit work unless their demands are met. With shipping virtually at a standstill, owing to the walkout of engineers and firemen employed on the tug boats and lighters, the garment industry almost completely paralyzed by a lockout and strike, and carpenters and painters out, employers generally declared that not in many years had labor conditions here been so chaotic. Officials of the various unions said tonight there was comparatively no change in the situation.

A. S. Crieg, assistant to receivers, St. Louis & San Francisco railroad, St. Louis.

One to be appointed.

The railroad representatives will meet with the representatives of the Brotherhoods at a series of conferences beginning June 1st., in New York city. It is planned that the delegates of the employes from the different districts will first meet with the railroad representative from that district and take up with him the reply of the railroads he represents to the demand made upon them by the employes. Then the results of the district conferences will be taken up at a meeting of all the representatives. It is expected that these conferences will develop whether the employes and the railroads will arbitrate or not and whether the employes will strike as it has been indicated in some instances.

REPORTS TWO TROOPERS COMMITTED SUICIDE.

El Paso, Texas, May 3.—A letter received here today from a soldier at the front says two American troopers committed suicide at Namiquipa. No names were given and the time was not stated. While the body was being removed an orderly passed the scene and reported that another private just shot and killed himself.

ZEPPELIN AIR RAID RESULTS IN THIRTY-SIX CASUALTIES

One Hundred Bombs Are Dropped on Northeast Coast of England and Southeast Coast of Scotland.

London, May 3.—The Zeppelin air raid on the northeast coast of England last night resulted in thirty-six casualties. This announcement was made officially today. One hundred bombs were dropped.

The statement reads:

"The Zeppelin raid last night covered a considerable extent of the eastern coast. At least five or six airships actually crossed the shore.

"Reports from reliable observers made at various times during the night at many points, some as far distant as Rattray Head, Scotland, down to the north coast of Norfolk, would point to the possibility of a greater number of airships having been employed off our coasts. The enemy, however, made only two attempts to penetrate inland.

"About 100 bombs were dropped, scattered over many localities.

"In only a single locality did the raiders cause any casualties or effect much damage. In this case the bombs amounted to twelve explosive and four incendiary and eighteen houses were damaged.

"The casualty totaled six men—one of them a soldier—and three women killed and nineteen men, including three soldiers and eight women injured—a total of 36. The remaining seventy odd bombs caused two casualties.

"The damage effected—on a store house and a few cottages—was mostly broken glass."

ZEPPELIN L-20 IS COMPLETELY DESTROYED AND DRIVEN ASHORE

Airship Falls on Western Side of Hafso Firth, Norway—Some of Crew Are Rescued.

London, May 3.—The Zeppelin L-20 has been completely destroyed and driven ashore on the western side of Hafso Firth, Norway, according to advices from Stavanger. Some of the crew were rescued.

The Zeppelin L-20 passed north of Sandnaes about 10 o'clock in the morning, says a Reuter dispatch from Stavanager. She was flying low and was in a damaged condition. Five or six men were seen to jump from the airship. Boats put out to their assistance and the commander and one seaman were rescued.

The Zeppelin was then driven over the hill tops against a hill side. Its after-body broken in two parts and part of it fell to the ground. Some of the crew jumped or were hurled out. The Zeppelin then rose a little and was driven westward but the bag of the dirigible collapsed and the airship descended rapidly. A torpedo boat went to its assistance and rescued three men still in the cabin. A fourth man had jumped out shortly before. Of the rescued men three officers and two non-commissioned officers were brought ashore; the whereabouts of the rest of the crew is not known. The Zeppelin was competely destroyed.

NEWS THAT FOUR IRISH LEADERS ARE EXECUTED CREATES SENSATION

Prominent Irish in Sympathy With Rebellion Declare They Are Shocked by the Action That Had Been Taken.

Washington, May 3.—The news that four of the Irish leaders of the rebellion had been executed caused a sensation in Irish circles here today. Prominent Irish in sympathy with the rebellion declared they were shocked by the action that had been taken. Robert E. Ford, editor of the Irish World, said:

"The shooting of Pearse, provisional president of the Irish republic, and his associates will serve only to make the war between Ireland and England more bitter. Pearse, like Washington, represented a people throwing off the yoke of England, Washington would have been shot down like Pearse had he fallen into the hands of the English."

Jeremiah A. O'Leary, president of the American Truth society, said that the men who signed the declaration of the republic knew they were signing their death warrants.

"These men knew their efforts would fail," Mr. O'Leary added, "but they were not striving for immediate results. They sought to place the cause of Ireland before the world like a thunderbolt. They have succeeded."

Meetings of a memorial character will be held by Irish sympathizers thruout the country, Mr. O'Leary said.

TRAGEDY OF MINNESOTA FARM

Farmer, Facing Life Term, Fights for New Trial.

Jackson Minn. May 3—Ole Solem, a prosperous farmer of Windom, Minn., will appear in court today with his lawyers, who will argue for a new trial of the charge of poisoning his mother-in-law. Solem was convicted of the crime in March and was sentenced to a life term at hard labor.

The crime stirred this section of Minnesota last September, nearly a year after Mrs. Sigri Haldorson, of Chrisitania township, died from the effects of paris green. It was charged that he fed her the poison in food, and that property which she owned was the motive. The arrest brought to a climax a family dispute of long standing, in which the real estate of the dead woman had engendered bitter feelings. Shortly before her death, Mrs. Haldorson executed a will in favor of Solem, altho a daughter of the woman had already been given a deed to the property.

Assertions by neighbors that Solem had murdered the aged woman to get early possession of the land led to an investigation last fall. The body was exhumed, and an analysis at the State University disclosed that she had died from paris green poisoning.

It was proven by the prosecution that the victim of the poisoning was nuable to feed herself by her own hand. According to witnesses, Solem's eight-year-old son, in a conversation the day before Mrs. Haldorson died, said, "Grandma is going to die to-morrow: pa gave her potato poison yesterday." The boy also told a detective that his father had brought home several packages and had forbidden him to touch them, saying they were "for grandma", and that the father had mixed something in a saucer and had "smeared it inside of grandmas mouth with a feather."

A box of paris green was found in the cupboard by the sheriff, altho Solem denied there was any on the premises.

Solem has told the police that he would have the guilty party in jail within thirty days if he could get out on bail. However, he refused to divulge, say the police any clues that he possessed.

his military strength into the hunt for the various marauding bands. Following his conference yesterday and last night with General Obregon tne discussion occupying twelve hours, General Scott snatched a few hours sleep today and then started to work filing a report to Secretary of War Baker at Washington. General Scott today refused to talk, other than to say that he was greatly satisfied with the course events had taken.

Receive Mesage in Code

Washington, May 3—A long telegram in code reached the War Department late tonight from General Scott at El Paso giving a full report of his conference with General Obregon, the Carranza war minister. Up to the time the message was decoded the Washington government had no official knowledge of the result of the discussion between the two military advisers, altho administration officials had made no secret of their satisfaction over the news in press despatches from the border saying that an understanding had been reached and danger of a clash with the de facto Mexican government removed.

GERMAN REPLY IS EXPECTED SOON

ing their minds open while they wait for the German note. The long delay very evidently has created a bad impression however, and it was authoritatively stated today that the issue would have to be cleared up this week if diplomatic relations with Germany were to continue.

The president is known to be unalterably determined to adhere strictly to the position assumed by the United States in its demand that Germany declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of submarine warfare. No proposal of any kind will be accepted by the American government it is said, unless it includes a declaration of intention to stop sinking peaceful ships at once.

BIG MILITARY TRAINING CAMP IN THE SOUTH

Prominent Business and Professional Men Present to Learn War Tactics.

Fort Ogelthorpe, Ga., May 3—Professional and business men, most of them prominent thruout the Eastern and Southern states, are gathered for military training at the big camp established here by the government. The training begins today under the general supervision of the United States army. The Fort Ogelthorpe Camp is the first of a series of camps to be conducted during the summer, at which from 30,000 to 50,000 civilians are expected to receive the brief training that will fit them for usefulness in war-time. Plattsburg, N. Y., San Diego and Monterey, Cal., Fort George Wright, Washington, Fort Benjamin Harrison, in Indiana, Fort Sheridan, in Illinois, and other camps at San Antonio and Galveston will be opened up later in the summer.

The government is providing tents blankets and arms, as well as free instruction.

The enlisted civilians are expending on an average of $60 each for uniforms, transportation and food.

Employers and many of the men in training have granted leaves of absence with a full month's pay.

The New England states are well represented in the recruits who will make up the first encampments. Many have come from New York and Pennsylvania, also, and not a few from Washington and Maryland. It is expected that 16,000 will be trained here before the camp closes in the autumn.

The purpose of the camp is to give each attendant as much of the fundamental education of an officer as can be imparted in the duration of the camp. A definite routine is prescribed for all, similar to that which the Plattsburg volunteers went thru last summer. Cavalry, infantry, artillery, signal corps and general officers of the United States Army are in charge of the camp.

Lieut. Colonel Henry T. Allen of the 11th U. S. Cavalry, is commandant of the camp, which is situated on the famous battle-ground of Chickamauga. Col. Allen was military attache at Berlin and Petrograd for some years, and attended the manouvres of the German and Russian armies. He organized the Philippine constabulary some years ago.

ST. LOUIS CLUBWOMEN IN HOT FIGHT

St. Louis, May 3—Factions striving for control of the Wednesday Club, the best known womens organization of this city, will get a show-down of votes at the annual election of officers today. A bitter campaign has been under way for several weeks for control of the club. The faction in power, which is known as the Democratic faction, is headed by Mrs. W. W. Boyd, for the last two years president of the club, and Mrs. Philip N. Moore heads the ticket of that faction today. The 'outs' or conservatives, are led by Mrs. W. K. Bixby, and Mrs. Halsey C. Ives is their candidate for the head of the club.

The faction now in control claims that a small coterie of women of wealth and social position controlled the club and its property for years and attempted to dominate. It is asserted that the club was hampered by rules of the old regime, and that independent expression of opinion was impossible.

Seven Hundred Automobiles to be used by Delco-Light Salesmen

The "Delco," which has had such an important part in the automobile industry by being the pioneers in the making of starting, lighting and ignition equipment, have brought out a new product. The new product is Delco-light, an electric plant for farm, village and suburban homes.

They have created an entirely new organization to handle the new product and over seven or eight hundred salesmen will each use an automobile to carry the new product for demonstration purposes right out into the field where it is to go.

Every owner of a Delco-equipped car who lives in the country will be interested in seeing a demonstration of this new plant.

Delco-light can be disposed of by putting it in the basement or in an outbuilding just like Delco equipment is disposed of by putting it under the hood of the automobile and there it sets doing its duty day after day, as the automobile drivers know.

The new product is sure to be an epoch-making one in country places where they will soon be as used to turning a switch to secure light and perform all the little chores as they are now to pulling a button to start the automobile.

Mr. S. R. Hussey will represent this product thruout Morgan and Sangamon counties and will have permanent offices and display rooms in 300 East State street, opposite post office, where he will be very glad to demonstrate this plant to any one interested.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

The Edmund Moores

By Ensley Moore.

Member Illinois State Historical Society.

One of the most valuable and most valued early settlers of Morgan county was Dr. Edmund Moore, who came here in 1827, and lived the rest of his life on his farm, about sevn miles east of Jacksonville.

Dr. Moore was born in Roscommon County, Ireland, in the year 1789 coming to this country with his parents that same year. His father was Lewis Moore, whose wife was Ellen Lockwood. Dr. Moore "during the first few years of his residence in America had the unusual experience of living under three forms of government: first, the French in Louisiana, under the First Consul, Napoleon Bonaparte; second, the Spanish in Florida, under King Charles the Fourth, and lastly, under the great Republic. He completed his education in the Seminary at Bardstown, Ky., and later took up the study of medicine." This Seminary, known as Nazareth, was the beginning of the great Roman Catholic school of the South, at New Orleans.

Dr. Moore married Miss Mary Oneal, of Nelson county, Ky., Nov. 30, 1823, and she lived until April 3, 1866. Her mother was Mary Cotton Oneal. Mrs. Moore's father was Bryant Oneal, and his father was Constantine Oneal. As may be inferred, they were Scotch. The Oneals were also anestors of John C. Oneal, long of the Pisgah neighborhood, who died not long ago at Lamar, Mo. Mary Cotton Oneal was of Irish ancestry, while her husband, Thos. Oneal was of Scotch. He was born in Kentucky, and served in the War of 1812 in a company of Kentucky Rangers, for which service he was pensioned. Back of Kentucky, the Oneals came from Virginia, and a Revolutionary incident occurred in their experience. A battle was fought between the Americans and British, in Mr. Oneal's wheat field The morning after the battle, a British soldier, who had been shot in the stomach, applied to the Oneals for something to eat. Mary Cotton Oneal gave him some milk. This at once ran out thru the perforation in his stomach. Never-the-less, the man lived and recovered. Long years after, in Kentucky, this fact was reported to a gathering of physicians, and, as but one similar case had been known of, the doctors differed in belief of the circumstances being true. Finally, one who knew Mrs. Oneal said, "If Mary Cotton Oneal says it is true, it is true!" And so the case was reported, and went into medical annals. Dr. Cox, father of the Drs. Cox who lived here some years ago, was present at this professional meeting.

Dr. Moore studied medicine with two doctors, in Kentucky, named Beemus, men of high professional ability and standing, and one of them went afterwards to Philadelphia and New York, and the other to New Orleans; each becoming celebrated in their new homes.

After his marriage, Dr. Moore went first to Rockport, Indiana, where he practiced his profession until he came to this county, in 1827. Here, he covered a range around of sixty miles in his practice, and was highly esteemed as a man and as a physician. He fairly wore himself out in the work, and retired about ten years before his death, which occurred May 29, 1877.

Dr. Moore was a pronounced anti-Slavery man, and a valiant supporter of the Union of the states. In religious matters he was a Presbyterian, being a life elder in that church organization.

The Oneals came from Fairfax county, Virginia, near Washington's place of residence, to Kentucky, and Patrick Henry, as Governor of Virginia, signed the warrant for the land given Mr. Oneal for his services as a soldier in the Revolutionary and Indian wars. He took part in one of the greatest battles ever fought between teh whites and Indians. This was in Ohio, under Gen. St. Clair.

Dr. Moore would never resort to the law as a means of collecting professional dues. He rode through all sorts of weather, to the injury of his health. Sometimes, on returning home, he would pour the water out of his boots. This is one illustration of the experiences of the people who made the good things in Illinois which we later comers now enjoy.

Dr. and Mrs. Moore were the parents of Lewis, born April 19, 1828; Ellen, born Nov. 24, 1830; George W., born Jan. 1, 1833, and Sylvester Lockwood, born April 18, 1834.

Lewis Moore removed to California, where he had a ranch, and an orange grove said to be the finest in the state. He died at Long Beach, Cal., Sept. 9, 1903.

Ellen Moore became the wife of Samuel Tindall, a prosperous farmer of this county. She died Sept. 29, 1900.

George W. Moore was raised upon the farm, and has made agriculture his life business. He attended Illinois College, and was graduated from it in 1856, being a member of Phi Alpha society.

He entered the Union army in August, 1861, being a lieutenant in Barbour Lewis' company, which went from here into the First Missouri Cavelry, because Illinois had filled its quota at that time. Mr. Moore served two years, and became so infected with malaria that he came home on sick furlough, and was never able to return to duty, and consequentaly was disvharged, much to his disappointment. The disease hung on to him for forty years. The company saw much severe service in southwest Missouri, and took part in the battle of Pea Ridge, in the Spring of 1862. There four boys from this town or neighborhood were killed: Edgar Anderson, Abner Upham and two others.

Mr. Moore was married, March 25, 1868, to Miss Nannie Chambers, in the house where he now resides, on West State street. She was the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Geo. M. Chambers. Mrs. Moore died July 29, 1889. They were the parents of one child, Miss Eleanor Irwin Moore, now residing with her father. Miss Moore is a graduate from Jacksonville Female Academy. The Moore family were attendants at Pisgah Presbyterian churchh.

Mr. Geo. W. Moore, as his father and brother, were strong Republicans, and did much service for country and party. This was recognized in 1887, when Mr. Moore was elected a County Commissioner of Morgan. He served three years in that office. He has since served nine years as a Trustee of the Illinois School for the Blind.

Last fall, Mr. Moore purchased the Col. Chambers' place, and now makes that his home. In it his daughter presides for him, with the grace which comes to those "to the manor born."

Sylvester Lockwood Moore made his home upon the farm until the war. He entered the service of his country as Captain in the 101st Regt. of Illinois Volunteers, in the Fall of 1862, and became major of that regiment. He went out as commander of Co. K, of which Thos. B. Orear was first lieutenant, and Daniel B. Henderson second lieutenant. The regiment served to the end of the War, it's most severe duty being in the Atlanta campaign, at the end of which the "Morgan County regiment" was the first to enter the captured city. The regiment went to the sea with Sherman, and with him through the campaign into North Carolina, and then to Washington, where it took part, May 24th, in the Grand Review. It then came west, and was paid off and disbanded at Springfield, June 21st, 1865.

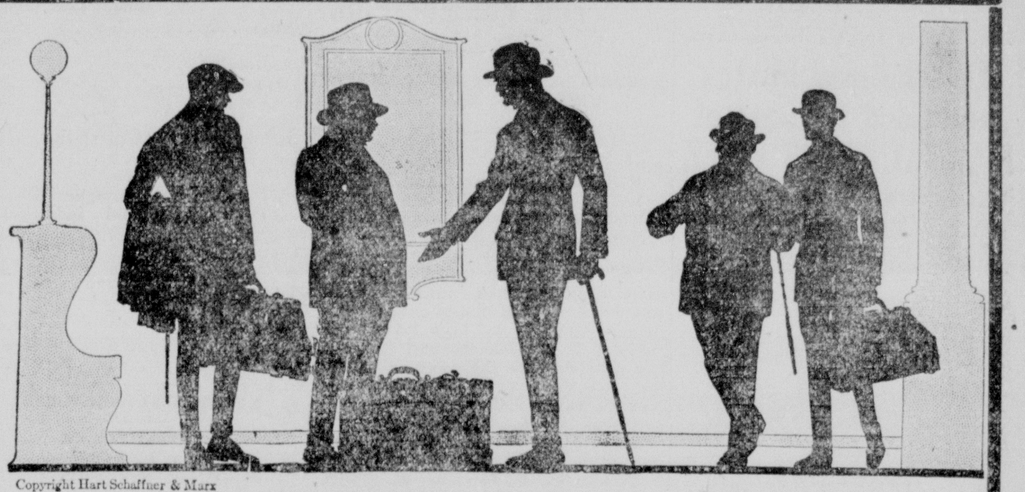

After the War, Major Moore was elected Sheriff of Morgan county, in 1866. After this he made his home in St. Louis, Mo., for awhile. He afterwards went to Cuba, Mo., where he died May 21, 1907.

This sketch does not do justice to the history of the Moore family, if only all its good work for, and devotion to the public welfare could be reached and recalled.

There is one incident, however of more than passing interest, to be related.

As stated above, Dr. Moore lived for a while in Rockport, Ind. This was in Spencer county, the home, at the time of Thomas Lincoln, a poor and obscure native of Kentucky. Dr. Moore was the family physician. He always maintained that Thomas Lincoln was a man of naturally high character and good abilities, altho deficient in education and literary attainments.

Some years after coming here to live, Dr. Moore was present when Abraham Lincoln made a speech here, and the Doctor met the coming statesman, whom he did not recall ever having seen before. But the natural politician knew more on the subject, and called Dr. Moore's attention to the fact that he had been their medical attendant in Indiana. To prove it Lincoln said, "When you prescribed for my mother you made a quill pen, fashioning it with your right hand, and then you wrote your prescription with your left hand." Dr. Moore was compelled to admit the truth of the statement, and so Lincoln came back into his memory to stay.

Valuable Health Hints For Our Readers

CATARRH

Just because you hawk and spit and your nose is wet, cold, red, sore and a nuisance, don't merely plug it up. You can't cure catarrh by greasing your nose. Take S. S. S. regularly and you will drive catarrhal poisons out of your blood. The membranes will soon recover and no longer continue to accumulate the mucous that gathers and thickens into catarrh. S. S. S. stimulates the cells of the tissues to select from the blood their own essential nutriment. Rapid recovery from catarrhal inflamation in the stomach, kidney, bladder and all membranes is the result.

MALARIA.

Throughout the country, wherever malaria abounds, are happy, joyful people to whom S. S. S. has given wonderful help in the treatment of malaria after the most sickening torture imaginable.

The gaunt complexion of malaria's victims, the chills and fever, the malarial dysentery that seems to defy all other treatment, the malarial leg, the enlarged liver, the persistent anemia where the blood turns to water and the system wastes away. These are the conditions that S. S. S. so effectually asissts in overcoming, by helping to restore the blood to its natural vigor.

STUBBORN SORES

Sometimes a sore spot becomes indolent. The tissues surrounding it lose tone and are unable to provide sufficient nutriment to stop the drain. It is then chronic. Just saturate your blood with S. S. S. This is quickly accomplished, as S. S. S. is naturally assimilated the same as milk or any other healthful liquid.

Nature acts with marvelous rapidity when given the proper assistance, and S. S. S. so stimulates cellular activity that the parts surrounding an ulcer select from the blood the materials that make new tissue. Thus the sore spot rapidly heals in a natural way.

Local applications for any skin disease will afford protection from without, but have no medical value. Eczema, tetter, acne and all such eruptive diseases should be treated with S. S. S.

POISONED BLOOD.

So many different things contribute to poison the blood and the effect is so startling that the sufferer becomes panic-stricken and is led to use harmful drugs. If you have any blood trouble, get a bottle of S. S. S. and take according to directions.

Don't take anything else. Poisoned blood is bad enough without ruining your bones, joints, teeth and vitals with minerals. S. S. S. so stimulates cellular activity that they reject all poisonous influences and select only those materials in the blood that make healthy tissue. This is why its assistance toward recovery is so noticeable and at times remarkable.

S. S. S. is welcome to the weakest stomach and is assimilated just as readily as the most nutritious food. It has helped to cure a host of sufferers.

RHEUMATISM.

In any form of rheumatism give the blood a good effectual cleansing with S. S. S.

Use this remedy for three days and take a hot salt water bath to open the pores. This relieves the lungs and kidneys and assists S. S. S. to utilize the skin as the principal avenue of elimination.

Avoid salts, calomel and other drastic purgatives, as they absorb the moisture from the walls and membranes of the intestines, weaken the muscular action, produce chronic constipation and thus stagnate the system with rheumatic poisons. Get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store. Don't take a substitute.

S. S. S. is purely vegetable and is prepared only by the Swift Specific Co., 271 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write for special booklet on any of the diseases mentioned and if medical advice is wanted, write for that also to address given above. Both booklet and medical advice are free.

QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.

May 7, 1916.

5. Verses 22-26. What is the most glorious news which the church can receive?

6. If all the churches today were filled with the same burning zeal, and spirit of evangelism as these early Christians manifested, what would be the result upon the evangelization of the world?

7. What is more essential in teaching Christianity and getting the world converted, a high education, or the burning zeal which comes from being filled with The Holy Spirit? Why?

8. Verses 27-30. What have generally been the spiritual results of "death," war, and other world calamities, and why is it so?

9. Why is it impossible for a burning zeal for the souls of men, and not also be equally zealous for their temporal welfare?

DOCTORS USING AMOLOX WITH GREAT SUCCESS

This remarkable letter, coming from a prominent physician engaged in active practice for over 25 years, proves the merit of this wonderful new remedy.

I have used Amolox in four different cases with excellent results. All showed marked improvement from the start. Two apparently are cured, the skin being free from scales and redness, and prefectly normal.

I consider Amolox a Remedy of rare merit. I know of nothing in the modern text-books that equals it in therapeutic value.

H. R. Hills, M. D., Youngstown, Ohio.

Pimples on the face, Blackheads, Acne and all minor skin troubles yield quickly to the use of the Amolox Ointment. Sufferers of Eczema, Psoriasis, Tetter, Salt Rheum, and bad chornic cases of skin diseases lasting for years, should use both the Ointment and Solution to effect a cure. Trial size, 50c. VEGETABLE CALOMEL

Vegetable calomel, extract of the root of the old-fashioned may-apple plant, does not salivate. As a liver stimulator, it's great. It's a perfect substitute for ordinary calomel (mercury); in fact, it's better, because its action is gentle instead of severe and irritating—and it leaves no mean, disagreeable after-effects. Physicians recognize this and prescribe may-apple root (podophyllin, they call it) daily.

Combined with four other standard, all-vegetable remedies, may-apple root may now be had at most any druggist's in convenient sugar-coated tablet form by asking for Sentanel Laxatives. If you forget the name, ask for the box that has the picture of the soldier on it.

These tablets are small, easy to take and are really wonderful little performers.

They quickly clean out the poisons that are causing you headache, constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, dizzy spells, bad breath and coated tongue.

They are mild. They never gripe. And they are a bowel tonic as well as a cleanser and liver regulator. A 10c box should last one several weeks. A Physician's trial package (4 doses) will be mailed you free if you write mentioning this advertisement. The Sentanel Remedies Co., 802 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

VETERANS MADE ADDRESSES IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

Day Set Apart for Addresses on Patriotic Themes Observed in Appropriate Way.

Patriotic instruction day was observed yesterday in the public schools with unusual interest on the part of all concerned.

At the First Ward.

To the First Ward Comrades J. F. Self, A. P. Vasconcellos, John Brown and S. W. Nichols went. First they addressed the upper grades in the room of Miss Josephine Yeck in the second story and were heard with great interest by the pupils. Mr. Vasconcellos told in graphic terms of some of the hardships and experiences of a soldier's life and helped the children understand what this country has cost the men who fought to defend its integrity. Miss Cobb, the principal, was with the visitors in all the rooms and the first had a victrola which rendered a number of patriotic airs and songs. The children sang several songs. Two other visits were made so that all the children in the building heard what the visitors had to offer and in all the rooms the children were taught to give their callers the military salute and in Miss Yeck's room they also gave the flag salute.

A pleasing incident of this visit was a gift by Comrades Samuel T. Maddox of 350 miniature silk flags to the school so that each teacher and pupil might have one and the flag wah fully explained by one of the visitors who told how it originated. The children heartily tendered their thanks to Comrade Maddox for his generous gift and were sorry he could not be there in person.

At the Second Ward.

At this school Rev. W. E. Spoonts and Comrades W. H. Jordan and L. Goheen were the visitors. These gentlemen visited the different departments up stairs and down and talked in a very instructive and entertaining manner to the children. Comrade Jordan told how the soldiers enlisted and how they had to march and fight and Comrade Goheen added much to the stock of information possessed by the children regarding the formation of the army and what the soldiers endured to save the union. Mr. Spoonts told of the south tho he wasn't old enough to bear arms during the war but assured the children of his thoro loyalty and love for the country in which we live and of which we are so proud. Patriotic songs were sung by the children and the entire occasion was full of interest.

At the Third Ward.

Comrades Hassell Hopper, J. M. Swales and J. G. Fox visited the Third Ward and spoke most entertainingly to the children. Comrade Swales told something of the awful horrors of southern prison life and what the soldiers endured there for the sake of the country they loved. The gentleman was well qualified to do this and he was heard with much interest. Different rooms were visited and the children greeted their visitors with patriotic songs anbundant evidence of welcome and patriotism. Comrades Hopper and Fox told about army life and how a soldier lived, marched, fought and worked.

At the Fourth Ward.

At the Fourth Ward comrades of Matt Starr post 278, John Minter and Comrade J. H. Rayhill were present. They spoke in the large assembly room on the second story and had an audience of which any comrade might be proud. Both gentlemen had encountered many thrilling adventures and were well able to tell their young hearers all that was possible in the time allotted. Both had seen years of hard service and well knew what was meant by a soldier's life. The children sang patiriotic songs and did their part well and received valuable lessons in love of country.

At the Morton School.

Comrades M. V. B. Wyatt and Ezra Scott visited the Morton school and had a pleasant time and one profitable to children. The little folks sang for them and in turn the visitors told the children much about army life; what it meant to be a soldier and how the soldiers had to do while in the service. They told of battles, marches, skirmishes and many features of a life in the army. The children sang patriotic sangs and thanked the veterans for their visit.

At the High School and David Prince School Buildings.

To the high school and David Prince buildings Comrades C. E. McDougall, R. R. Stevenson, George W. Moore and Surgeon A. P. Bartlett went. In both buildings the exercises were grand. The visitors told in eloquent terms of the life a soldier leads and what he has to endure and gave their hearers to understand something of what this favored land has cost. They told of true preparedness and how each person in the land should do all possible to bring it about. The addresses were lustily cheered and national songs were sung with hearty will.

Open Air School.

In the afternoon Comrades McDougall and R. R. Stevenson went to the open air school and there received a warm welcome from the teachers, Misses Hammond and Peak, and the children. There, too, the hearers were told about the land in which we live and the sacrifices made by the veterans in the great conflict. Songs were sung and a pleasant and profitable time was enjoyed.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause — Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested food, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Fly Catechism.

(1)—Where is the house fly born? In filth, chiefly in horse manure and outhouses.

(2)—How long is the life cycle of his birth? About ten days from the time the egg is laid until the mature fly is born.

(3)—What are the steps in the transformation from the egg to the fly? The egg, the maggott, the pupa, the fly.

(4)—Where does the fly live? Where there is filth.

(5)—Is there anything too filthy for the fly to eat? No.

(6)—Does the fly like clean food, too? Yes, and it appears to be his delight to wipe his feet on it.

(7)—Where is his favorite place of breeding? The manure heap and the garbage can.

(8)—Where does the fly go after leaving the manure heap and garbage can? Into the kitchen, dining room and bedroom.

(9)—What does he do in the kitchen and dining room? He wipes his feet on the food, bathes in the milk, and annoys the sleeper.

(10)—Does the fly visit those sick with typhoid fever, consumption, smallpox and cholera infantum? He certainly does and may call on you next.

(11)—Is the fly dangerous? Yes, he spreads disease.

(12)—How does he spread disease? By carrying infection on his legs and wings, and by "fly specks" after he has been on infectious material.

(13)—What diseases may the fly thus carry? He may convey typhoid fever, tuberculosis, cholera, dysentary and "summer complaint."

(14)—Did the fly ever kill anyone? He killed more American soldiers in the Spanish-American war than bullets of the Spaniards, and was the direct cause of much of the typhoid fever in Kansas a year or so ago.

(15)—Where are the greatest number of typhoid fever and summer complaint? Where there are the most flies.

(16)—Where are the most flies? Where there is the most filth.

(17)—Is the presence of flies therefore an indication of nearby filth? It most certainly is, and that is disgraceful.

(18)—How may we successfully fight the fly?

By destroying or removing his breeding place, the manure pile, removing all garbage and making vault fly proof, and by keeping our yard and alley clean; by screening the house; by the use of sticky fly paper, used with a holder, to avoid accidents, from blowing or otherwise distributing the paper, by accidental means.

Mrs Mary E. Johnson of Lockwood Place expected to start this morning for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lena Finley, at Adrian, Missouri.

SOME FARM TOPICS

Dairy Cow Management.

The largest consideration which should make for or against any system of dairy farming are those factors involved that are apt to affect the milk yield. From this standpoint, the best modern practice of stanchioning in stables is superior to running cattle loose in a shed and using a milking room, with regard to feeding and protective housing. In the shed system the roughages, such as hay and silage, are usually fed in racks in the shed. But if individual feeding of concentrates is practiced, such feeding must be done at milking time. Many cows will not eat their grain ration within the time required to milk them. Unless some provision is made to care for the slow eaters, they will fail to produce up to their capacity and thereby become a source of considerable loss. With stanchioned cows the feeding of both roughages and concentrates can be practiced with regard to the requirements of the individual cow. The cow has ample time for eating.

A suitable stable for dairy purposes should be light, warm, and well ventilated. It follows that a shed for dairy stock should meet these same conditions. While stock running loose in a shed doubtless can keep warmer than stock stanchioned in a stable at the same temperature, still any such extra heat is developed at the expense of milk yield and constitutes an objection to the use of the ordinary type of shed. The sheds mostly used in the system under discussion do not afford sufficient winter protection for the housing of high producing dairy cows.

It has been pretty definitely established that a cow produces the most milk when protected in a warm, ventilated shelter, carefully fed, and kept quiet. The concensus of opinion among men of the widest experience is that these conditions are most easily attained where cows are stanchioned in a stable. Because of this, soilage crops are coming more and more into use for replacing pastures other than natural ones. The milk cow is a motor for converting energy in the form of feed into energy in the form of milk. She performs this conversion most efficiently when she gets her feed from an individual manger, and any plan for caring for a dairy herd should recognize this basic principle of milk production.—W. E. J., in The Farmers' Review, Chicago.

Plowing Under Stalks.

It was interesting this spring to notice the different attitude which various farmers had regarding the heavy growth of corn stalks. Some men jumped to the conclusion that they could not plow under so many stalks and so burned them. Just to show how mistaken they were in that conclusion, I will mention the work of Mr. O. L. Talbott of Spring Lake township. I was at his farm just as he was finishing plowing under an immense growth of stalks on peat land. His corn had been planted about four grains to the hill and the stalks had not been pastured closely, so there was a great lot of them to handle but he had plowed them under successfully as he makes a practice of doing every year. Of course he has to regulate his plowing and his cultivating to fit the conditions of that exceedingly loose soil and the heavy crop of stalks which he worked into it, but he gets it done and gets larger corn crops as a result than he could get when he burned the stalks. When we consider that the peat land has already four times as much organic matter as our best prairie land and is accordingly mellow and loose, it is evident that stalks could be handled successfully without burning on any land in the county. Mr. Talbott discovered some years ago that plowing under stalks increased the crop of corn following and so he has steadfastly followed that practice.

Corn Planting Test.

We have just prepared for Farm Bureau members a statement of the 19 corn planting tests which were made last season by some enterprising Farm Bureau members. These tests showed a difference of four bushels per acre on the average between some methods of planting. The tests show that the kind of planting that gives best results on one sort of land may not be suitable for land of a different type. Some of the members will repeat these tests this year as a difference in the season may make a difference in results.

One very interesting test was made in cultivating corn on the farm of Fred Hellemann at Tremont. His son Arthur made this test and found a difference of seven bushels per acre betwen the yields from the two methods of cultivation which were tried. Seven bushels per acre is a big gains to get simply by choice of methods for doing a piece of work and without any extra time or cost required. It is such things as this that the Farm Bureau organization can work out advantageously and spread among the members.

A Family Of Cattle Men.

I spent part of a day last week among members of the Ryan family at Delavan. John, William, William E., and James are all cattle feeders. Their farms are in the same neighborhod and their lands are very productive. The policy of feeding cattle every year and keeping the plant food on the farm has been found to pay. They buy with discriminnation, feed rations that give big gains and sell carefully. Some of these have much of the land in grass and so less than the usual amount of labor is required, but the years' receipts come in just the same.—E. T. Robbins, Peoria County Agent.

The Narrows school about five miles southeast of Jacksonville closed a successful term Wednesday. Patrons and friends of the school assembled at the school to appropriately celebrate the closing. There were about 75 who brought well filled baskets and a picnic dinner was enjoyed. The teacher of the school, Miss Pearl Hughes, furnished ice cream for the dinner. She has been most successful in her work and has been engaged for next year at an increased salary.

REPORTS OF CROP DAMAGE RESULT IN HIGHER WHEAT PRICE

Close Is Firm at ⅜ to ¾ of a Cent Net Advance—Corn Does Not Make Response to Wheat Strength.

Chicago, May 3.—Reports of crop damage from green bugs in Oklahoma and from Hessian fly in Illinois resulted today in higher prices for wheat. The close was firm at ⅜ to ¾c net advance, with May at $1.15½ and July at $1.16¾@1.16⅞. Corn finished unchanged to ⅜c higher, oats a shade off to ¾c up and provisions varying from 15c decline to a rise of 2½c.

Announcement that export business amounting to 1,000,000 bushels had been transacted today helped to strengthen the wheat market in the last part of the session. Bulls were disposed to connect this fact with word that arrivals at Liverpool had been inadequate and that shipments from India had been stopped altogether. On the other hand all of the export business noted today was said to consist of Canadian grown wheat.

Corn did not make much response to the wheat strength. The chief reason seemed to be that planting was progressing rapidly, and that indications pointed to fair and warmer weather.

Oats were bullishly affected by reports of damage from green bugs in Oklahoma.

Tightness in the May option became more pronounced. Lower prices on hogs pulled down provisions. Lard, however, made a good recovery.

STOCK MARKET SUFFERS FURTHER IMPAIRMENT OF QUOTED VALUES

Pressure Against International List Gives Added Color to Rumors of Distribution of Such Stocks for German Interests.

New York, May 3.—Disregarding numerous constructive factors, including the more hopeful inferences drawn from Washington's relations with Germany and Mexico, an increased dividend from American Smelting, optimistic steel trade reviews and additional excellent railway returns, the market today suffered a further impairment of quoted values.

Pressure against the international list gave added color to rumors of distribution of such stocks for German interests. Brokers with Teutonic connections denied these rumors, but the continued firmness of exchange on Berlin plainly implied purchases of bankers bills.

Mercantile Marine's preferred registered an extreme loss of 5½ points on its decline to 77 and the common losing 2¼ at 24⅝. Marines were weak and in the afternoon following the publication of a statement which pointed to serious differences between the bond holders and the preferred stockholders over the term of reorganization.

There were steady offerings of the munition stocks, Crucible Steel, New York Airbrake, American and Baldwin Locomotives and Pressed Steel Car closing 1 to 3 points, while motors were even more heavy.

Firmness verging upon actual strength marked the course of coppers most of the time, American Smelting recording an extreme gain of 2 points, with almost as much for Anaconda on its remarkable exhibit of earnings for 1915.

The zinc shares were out of line with this movement selling off a point or more. Rails were irregular at best, but shaded in the afternoon with some substantial net losses.

Total sales amounted to 585,000 shares.

Total sales of bonds par value were $3,120,000.

Build Beauty Into Every Room

Specify Cornell-Wood-Board for the walls and ceilings of the new home. Then the entire house will come up to your ideals of beauty, permanence and economy. Let Cornell designers show you just how it can be done.

Cornell-Wood-Board allows any desired effect in paneling; the quality of every board is guaranteed; the cost is surprisingly low.

Cornell-Wood-Board is an all-wood product, made from pure, tough wood fibre into boards of convenient sizes. Each fibre is sized with water proofing compound and the finished board is surfaced on both sides, which makes it practically moisture-proof and reduces the cost of decorating.

It is a non-conductor of cold, heat and sound. Keeps the house warm in winter, cool in summer. Takes paint or kalsomine perfectly. The best builders and decorators recommend Cornell-Wood-Board.

UNITED STATES
CREAM SEPARATOR

GOT A SLIP OF PAPER HANDY? All right, now take your pencil and let's do a little figuring.

As a dairyman of long experience, what points would you pick out as most important in a profitable cream separator? FIRST—

1. Cleanest Skimming Comes First
Right on the first count! That's the bull's-eye they are all shooting at; but some can't even hit the target. Put down your second point.

2. Most Sanitary is Next
Sure thing! If a separator cannot be kept sweet and clean, inside and out, winter and summer, it is a mighty bad investment. What's a third requirement?

3. Must be Easy to Operate
That's correct! If a machine takes up a lot of time and strength to "hitch, un-hitch, or drive,"—twice a day, seven days in the week, 365 days in the year, that's the one to pass by! What next?

4. Small Repair Bills Important
Isn't it the truth? A "cheap" separator is always the most expensive in the end, on account of the cost of replacing weak parts, and by reason of lost time and inconvenience. So now you have reached the fifth requirement.

5. One without Nest of Funnel Discs
Under the old "bunch of discs" system the wife can never expect to be relieved of heavy burden in the dairy. Why not free her from all but the necessary toil?

6. Must Work from Either Side
That's a good point too. It makes it possible to fit the separator into any room. You don't have to make over the room to fit the separator.

NOW SUPPOSE YOU DRAW A LINE, AND ADD UP THE GOOD POINTS. WHAT DO YOU GET? CORRECT. THERE IS ONLY ONE ANSWER—

"THE UNITED STATES CREAM SEPARATOR."

Don't buy any separator until you have seen THE Separator. I want to show you how it works. I can preach a sermon on any one of the six points you've mentioned. Call me up by 'phone, write, or come in and see me.

TESTING CITY SOOT FALL

Cincinnati, May 3—This city, in connection with St. Louis, Pittsburg and Chicago, has under way a test to ascertain the amount of soot fall for the year ending April 1, 1917. The same test is being applied to each city. Thirty-six glass jars, four inches in diameter and 10 inches deep, have been placed in various sections of the city, on the roofs of low buildings, where they will not be disturbed by air currents. Once a month the jars are collected, the contents weighed and analyzed, and comparisons made with the other cities.

You measure each ingredient when you make your best things.

Isn't it just as important that the constituents of the flour you use be as accurately measured?

Here's a Good Night-Cap For Croupy Children

Foley's Honey and Tar Masters Croup Quickly and Clears the Throat of Choking Phlegm.

More dreaded than an alarm of fire by night is the hoarse brassy cough of croup to the nervous mother who fears this terror of childhood.

"Oh, but that Foley's Honey and Tar is a wonderful thing for croup. Thank Heaven, had it on hand."

Why worry, why dread the approach of nightfall, when a few timely doses of FOLEY'S Honey and Tar will ward off the approach of croup and clear the throat of choking phlegm.

It stops the gasping strangling fight for breath and allows peaceful breathing and quiet sleep. Do not think this too good to be true, but get a bottle of FOLEY'S Honey and Tar Compound and it will give you confidence to face nightfall without the fear of croup. Mrs. Ben Meyerink, Clymer, N. Y. says: "Our little girl would surely have had croup but FOLEY'S Honey and Tar stopped it at once." 25c, 50c and $1.00 sizes. Every user is a friend.

The class of 1916 at Jacksonville high school have before them a full program of events. Thursday evening, May 25th, at 7:30 o'clock, the class, eighty strong, will assemble for the graduation exercises at the Grand Opera House when the commencement program will be carried out by six of the seniors selected on the basis of grades and by vote of their fellows: Miss Alene Dugger, Miss Gladys Ferreira, John K. Furry, John Martin, Carl Tendick and Miss Isabel Woodman. No official list of the class has been issued from the superintendent's office as there remain a few grades to be made up on the part of some, several have been absent more than the allotted time, and other causes make it impossible to specify the number of graduates with exactness.

Among events leading up to graduation week are the Illinois College track and field meet and declamatory contest next Friday; the final spelling contest Monday next; the local inter-class track meet May 10, for which the schools of the city will be dismissed at 11:30 o'clock; the last Adelphian asociety meeting; Illinois university track meet in which J. H. S. will take part, and last but not least, the final examinations which will occupy Wednesday, Thursday and Monday, May 17, 18 and 22.

For schools of the entire city the big day of the year will be Friday, May 19. In the morning at 9 o'clock there will be the declamation contest at the Opera house; the W. I. H. S. L. track meet will take place in the afternoon at Illinois college grounds, with the senior play, "All of a Sudden Peggy" also at the Grand in the evening.

Commencement Week.

Commencement week will begin Sunday morning when the baccalaureate sermon will be given by the Rev. Percy W. Stephens at First Baptist church. State Street church was first announced as the place, but by reason of the fact that Rev. Mr. Stephens is soon to leave the city, the general opinion seemed to be that the Baptist church would be the proper place.

Monday the final examinations will be completed tho seniors who have made a grade of more than ninety per cent will be excused.

A clever program has been arranged for Monday evening, when members of the senior class will present their four year's heritage of work, play and study to the juniors, the seniors next year. John K. Furry, president of the class, will preside. Miss Esther Davis and Frank Robinson will present the trophies to juniors; the class will will be read by Frank Hughes and the class prophecy by Walton Bland. Miss Grace Van Houten will read the class history and William Barlett has in preparation a poem for the occasion.

Field Day at Park.

Tuesday, the 23rd will be field day and this event, following the custom of other years, will be held at Nichols park. There will be a picnic dinner at noon, followed by a program of athletic events. The last school event before the commencement will take place Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock when juniors of the high school will entertain the seniors at the annual banquet. This will be held at Odd Fellows hall and will be in direct charge of the committee of which Wilbur Rogers, president of the class, is chairman. On the reception committee will be the president and the faculty officers, Miss Sophronia Kent and Prof. T. P. Carter. The senior officers are Miss Agnes Rogerson and Prof. Paul E. Morrison.

Plans for a "better than ever" high school annual are well under way. A "Crimson J" announcement was made by the editor, Miss Hildegard Rose, and a subscription contest was initiated by John Martin at the high school assembly Wednesday morning.

Officers of the senior class are:
President—John K. Furry.
Vice President—William Bartlett.
Secretary—Miss Ruby Cully.
Treasurer—Lloyd Cully.

Tho the program for the remaining days is a heavy one, the members of the class are well able to carry it thru, and the fact that grades this year are higher than usual bespeaks the hard work and many hours of study which have made these graduation events possible.

ENGAGED IN NEIGHBORHOOD ROW

Edna Nunes and Florence Schumaekr engaged in a fight at the Schumaker residence on North East street Tuesday evening. The Nunes woman, it is said, knocked Mrs. Schumaker and her mother down and the affair disturbed the entire neighborhood. Officer Deatherage was sent to the scene and arrested the two women and took them to the station.

So far as can be learned Ernest Schumaker, who is the husband of Florence Shumaker went to his wife's home with Edna Nunes. The Schumaker's have been having trouble and have not lived together for some time. It is said that he has been keeping company with Edna Nunes. A wordy altercation betwen the women resulted in the fight and subsequent arrest. As Officer Deatherage was taking the belligerents to the station Shumaker dropped something by the side of the walk near the Andrews lumber yard. A search revealed a revolver and Schumaker was placed under arrest on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. The charge against the women was disturbing the peace and assault and battery.

In Justice Dyer's court Wednesday afternoon Edna Nunes was fined $5 and costs on the charge of assault and battery. Schumaker was fined $25 and costs on the charge of carrying concealed weapons and the revolver was confiscated.

DESCRIBES BATTLE WITH BANDITS AT TEMOCHIC

DODD TERMS IT "DEVIL'S OWN PLAYGROUNDS."

Man-to-Man Fighting in Two Hour Battle and Some Americans Go Up the Mountain Sides With Knives in Their Teeth.

Field Headquarters, April 29—by motor courier to Columbus, N. M., May 3—There was man-to-man fighting, and some of the Americans went up the mountain sides with knives in their teeth during Colonel George A. Dodds' battle with Villa bandits on April 22nd at Temochic.

"It was the Devil's own playgrounds." This was Colonel Dodds' description of the scene of this battle in Southwestern Chihuahua, among towering mountains, where 150 bandits sought refuge. For two hours Dodds troops of the Seventh Cavalry, E. H. I. and L., fought from an immense hollow with bandits on three sides. They accounted for at least fifty bandits killed and wounded, against an American loss of two dead and three wounded. One Mexican woman was wounded by bandits.

Two hours before this fight, the Americans overtook the bandits at the Yonquivo mine where they were telling the natives stories of how they claimed to have whipped the Americans at Columbus and at Guerrero. They showed big lumps of gold and silver taken from Mexican towns and melted down, which they asserted were the spoils of war. Shortly before midnight an outpost ran in breathless, exclaiming, "The Americans are coming in!"

Scores of dark forms leaped thru the fire light, bugles blew, and in ten minutes the whole bandit command, had galloped out of town. When the cavalrymen came in they found two American mining men, a Mr. Seyferth, and another who had paid $2,000 ransom to the bandits, and whose lives probably had been saved by the Seventh's arrival.

These Americans said the bandits were led by Candelero Cervantes, Jesus Del Rios, Cruz Dominguez and Manuel Baca, who was killed the following Sunday after the fight by a Mexican.

Among them were followers of Julio Acosta and General Beltran. They were remnants of all the best known Villa commanders' veterans and at that time at least the last known band of Villa followers remaining bad men whose nerve had not been shaken by defeats at Columbus, Guerrero and Agua Calientes.

Saturday afternoon at 4:30, Dodds' men arriving at the Southern rim of the hills forming the cup in which the town of Temochic lies, saw the rear guard of bandits riding out of town. Ahead of them they saw the main body waiting behind rocks to give battle. A machine gun was placed to sweep this ridge while the Americans rode down into the cup in pursuit. They dismounted in town, advancing on foot, led by Troop L.

While still in town, a trooper was hit and mortally wounded. Beyond the town, Troop L, advanced to within range of the crests above. They crossed the range in short rushes. Colonel Dodd, with his staff rode thru this zone off, while bullets fell within a yard or two of every man until they reached a small knoll beyond the town. From here Dodd directed the fight. Another machine gun was brought up, out along the American line a trooper was lying on his stomach firing. His comrades saw a bullet strike forty feet in front of him, then another popped twenty feet ahead of him. In a moment more a third ball struck him in the head killing hom. A lieutenant lying among his men directing the fire was wounded.

Meanwhile the Americans had gotten the range of the Mexicans on the crest and checked their fire. Several freshly made graves on this crest, found next day, testified to the Americans' aim. One Mexican leader on a grey horse rode into sight on the skyline half a dozen times but seemed to be a charm against bullets. His grey mount was the last living object the Americans distinguished before darkness ended the fight. This horse was found wounded next day at Santo Tomas, where Manuel Baca, the Villa leader was killed by Leondro Alvarez, a Mexican pacifist for the price of twenty silver pesos, (about seven dollars American money). The Mexicans said the horse was Baca's.

FRED GRISWOLD LOCKED UP

"Fred Griswold, alias "Gris," was arrested by the police Wednesday morning and locked in the police station. Griswold is a noted character about town and Chief Davis is of the opinion that he knows something about the murder of Ralph McDonald. He was placed in safe keeping and will be taken before the coroner's jury when it convenes this morning to investigate further into McDonald's death.

Speaking of the murder Wednesday Chief Davis told a Journal reporter that he was of the opinion that Ross would be apprehended in a few days. Chief Davis said it took some time to send cards with a description of the wanted man over the country. When the cards are received by the various police departments and sheriff's offices it is hoped that Ross will be picked up.

CONCERTS OF 2ND. DAY PROVE HIGHLY PLEASING

DELEGATES TO I. M. T. A. MEETING HEAR HIGH CLASS PROGRAMS.

Silvio Scionti of Chicogo and Mrs. Helen Brown Read Attractions Wednesday Evening—Organ Recital at I. W. C.—Mrs. Harsch and Mr. Phillips Today.

Concerts of marked excellence featured the second day program of the Illinois Music Teachers' Convention, in session here this week. Wednesday evening at Central Christian church the concert was by Mrs. Helen Brown Read and Silvio Scionti of Chicago. The auditorium was filled to overflowing and the audience was well repaid by a most excellent program.

John Winter Thompson of Galesburg, and John Doane of Evanston, organists, assisted by Mrs. Stella Westenberger of Springelfid, contralto, gave the concert of the afternoon. This program was given at Illinois Woman's college before an audience which was at once large and sympathetic.

Reception at Woman's College.

After the evening concert delegates were entertained at Illinois Woman's college by Mrs. Joseph R. Harker and members of the faculty. Dr. Harker, president of the college is out of the city, leaving several days since for Saratoga Springs, N. Y., as a delegate to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The delegates were taken by automobile from the church to the college and upon arrival were received by Mrs. Harker, Director and Mrs. Henry V. Stearns, John B. Miller, the president; H. O. Merry, secretary of the association; Mrs. H. O. Merry, Mrs. Franklin L. Stead of the Peoria College of Music and a former head of the Woman's College musical department here; Mrs. Stead, Mrs. Helen Brown Read and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Crabtree. Spring blossoms were used in the reception room with charming effect. Light refreshments were served.

The Evening Concert.

The Wednesday evening concert in the words of Edgar Nelson of Chicago, who appears as accompanist this evening, was one of the best in the series, who, by way of criticism of the numbers says:

"Mrs. Helen Brown Read, a Jacksonville artist, was the singer and she showed a voice of great beauty as well as range. Her first group consisted of five Brahms songs which she interpreted in most satisfactory style, both as to tone and enunciation. Especially attractive was "Der Tod das ist die Kuhle Nacht." This group was so warmly encored that she responded with another number, Strause's Serenade. In her second group, which was in English, and with one exception American compositions, she again charmed her audience, reaching her highest point in Helen Ware's "Wind and Lyre." Her personality is such that each of her songs seems the best and whether in the dramatic, or lyric such as Cyril Scott's Lullaby, she is convincing. She gave as an encore to the last group a number by a Jacksonville girl, Miss Anne Wakely Jackson, "The Cross of Dusk," a lovely song that showed true merit.

"Mrs. Read had the most able assistance in Mr. John Doane. He is an accompanist equal to any occasion and showed in his work last night that the piano as well as the organ is his medium of expression.

"Mr. Silvio Scionti, the pianist, of Chicago, who gave the other half of the program, demonstrated his ability in a selection of numbers ranging from Bach to Debussy.

"His opening groupe was the selection Andante favori of Beethoven, done in a beautifully chaste style and followed by the Bach, Busoni Chaconue, which showed fine contrast and bigness. In his second group he probably gave the audience the greatest pleasure. The Brahm's Capriccio was a gem and the three Debussy numbers showed much poetry and imagination. After the "Rondo" from the "Toy Box," the audience fairly gasped with delight and Mr. Scionti graciously gave them an encore, Cyrit Scott's Passacalgia. He closed the program with the Chopin Barcarolle and a by reading of Listz's Erocia.

"Incidently it might be mentioned that artists give their best when they have such an instrument as the one of last evening which was a Mason and Hamlin."

Wednesday Afternoon.

In a well worded critique of the concert Wednesday afternoon Rudolph Reuter of Chicago says:

An audience which packed the acoustically excellent auditorium at the Woman's College welcomed a coterie of splendid artists who gave the afternoon performance.

Mrs. Stella Westenberger, of Springfield sang the aria "Voi che sapete" by Mozart, and a group of four shorter songs. In the aria the remarkable quality and richness of her low tones caused enthusiasm among the listeners. In the group she displayed splendid powers of dramatization, and herein Mary Turner Salter's "Cry of Rachael" impressed particularly. Her singing was a delight, and the audience's demands for an encore had to be complied with. She added "Summer Evening" by Larsen.

John Doane, master organist from Chicago, lived up the reputation he enjoys in the Western metropolis, and played superbly, handling with the greatest skill an organ with which, owing to lack of opportunity for practice, he could not have familiarized himself thoroly. His skill in registration was beautifully brought to bear on four most interesting transcriptions of a melody by Rachmaninoff, two Demussy pieces and the Liebestod, from Wagner's "Tristan und Isolde." Of his second group, Rosseter, by Cole's rousing "Fantasie Symphonique" was particularly impressive and was played with all enthusiasm this excellent work deserves. It has had two performances with orchestra in Chicago. Mr. Doane had to add two encores. One was a "Scherzina" by S. Ferrata. Besides his solo work Mr. Doane proved himself a sympathetic accompanist in Mrs. Westenberger's numbers.

Mr. John Winter Thompson, Galesburg's excellent organist, delighted the audience with a clean-cut and brilliant performance of the mighty Fantasy and Fugue in G minor by Bach, the concert's opening number. He gave the difficult piece a polished interpretation, and had to respond to calls for an encore with a "Communion" in E minor by Faulkes. Mr. Thompson later played the Rheinberger-Pastoral Suite with superb technic, and proved again his excellent musicianship and conception of larger forms in this excellent work by the German contrapuntalist.

It was a most successful concert, and Mr. John Miller, the president of the Illinois Music Teachers' Association, who made one of his always appropriate and short speeches between two of the numbers, is to be congratulated in having gathered such excellent material for the convention.

Committees Appointed.

At the business session Wednesday noon the following committees were announced:

Nominating—Harry R. Detweiler, Aurora; John Doane, Evanston; Henry V. Stearns, Jacksonville.

Place of meeting—Franklin L. Stead, Peoria, and Edgar A. Nelson, Chicago.

At the morning session a very able paper was given by Mr. Detweiler, director of Columbia School of Music, on "Teaching Material for the Intermediate Grades of Piano." Mr. Detweiler illustrated the paper with piano selections. Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson of Illinois Conservatory of Music, presented "Teaching Material for the Intermediate Grades of Voice." Earl Pond, a pupil of Mrs. Wilson, assisted in acceptable manner.

The ensemble number by Mr. Henry Stearns and Mrs. Rosalind Day of Jacksonville and Mr. Richard Wagner of Chicago proved an artistic ending for the Wednesday morning sesion of the Teachers' association. The trio in D minor is of Mr. Stearns own composition and gave evidence of his ability as a composer as well as organist. Mrs. Day, violinist, has frequently been heard with pleasure by Jacksonville audiences and Mr. Wagner with the cello was received with the same favor as when he appeared on the concert program of Tuesday night.

A Rising Young Artist.

Concerning Tuesday evening's program it might be interesting to know that the Rhapsody in G minor by Bernard Dieter that Mr. Reuter so beautifully played is the work of a pupil of Mr. Reuter's. He has written several things for piano in both large and small form and is consistently modern. He was born in Naperville in 1892 and studied composition under Adolph Brune. Mr. Wagner's 'cello playing Tuesday evening showed excellent technical mastery and great beauty of tone. Especially brilliant and clear were the octave passages in the Boellman variations.

Mr. Coffen's work was the best in the Tone poem by Fibich and the Carmen Fantasy helped to show his mastery tho the piece itself is of no great value. The trio was superbly done.

FRANK GARLAND BUYS SOUTH MAIN STREET PROPERTY

Frank J. Garland has recently purchased from the W. J. Lemp Brewing Co. the building on South Main street just south of the Strawn block and now occupied by Birdsell & Acree. The building is three stories high and about 180 feet in depth. It was for a great many years occupied by the late John Rottger who had a furniture store and undertaking establishmen there. After he vacated the property it was occupied for different lines of business and was eventually purchased by the brewing company for saloon purposes. Mr. Garland will later make a number of improvements in the building, including enlarging and concreting of the basement, and eventually the property will be occupied by the Hudgin Furniture Co. This will not be until a considerably later date as a lease is in effect on the present quarters occupied by this growing furniture firm.

PLAY STAGED BY CHAPIN HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS WEDNESDAY NIGHT

"The Rhodes Scholar" Proved a Splendid Home Talent Production —Parts All Well Taken.

"The Rhodes Scholar" was staged by pupils of the Chapin high school in the opera house at Chapin Wednesday night. A large audience was present and the play was accounted one of the very best amateur performances ever seen in the village. Prof. Robertson, principal of the school, assisted by the teachers, Misses Marian Dennis, Mary Black, Pearl Wild and Bessie Struck, arranged for the presentation and the cast showed the results of admirable training. The proceeds of the play will be added to the library fund of the school. The parts were all so well taken that individual mention cannot be attempted. The play abounded in funny situations and the story running thru the acts was of such dramatic interest that the attention of the audience was readily held. The cast of characters included the following:

Henry Barker, the Rhodes scholar —Werner Onken.

Mr. Otis Barker, father—Frank Anderson.

Hiram Jenks, a freshman from the rural district—Bernard Allen.

Silas Jenks, father of Hiram—Walter Williams.

Ralph Waldo Montgomery, a dude —Arthur Perbix.

Billy, a small boy with original ideas—George Antrobus.

Miss Nell Andrews, Billy's sister —Addie Fox.

Miss Mame Binks, maid of all work—Aileen Omer.

Mrs. Susanne Jane Miles, an impressionable widow and keeper of a boarding house—Mary Owings.

Miss Bertha Morris, an athletic girl—Myra Anderson.

Mary Phillips and Ruth Carroll, two college girls—Misses Blanche Jones and Letha Eiler.

Place—Clinton college.

Following the performance all the members of the cast were entertained at the home of Miss Letha Eiler, where two hours were spent in a delightful social way. Refreshments were served and a number of musical numbers were given.

MR. RUSSEL IN WASHINGTON

A Washington Dispatch to the St. Louis Globe says:

"Andrew Russel, state treasurer of Illinois, and his chief clerk, Harry T. Ellis, spent part of today in Washington calling on Republican members of Congress from Illinois

"Russel, besides being a district delegate to the Republican National Convention, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. 'I saw Senator Sherman and had a pleasant half hour's conversation with him last night. I am for Sherman for president of course, and will vote for him for first choice. I find there is a considerable underlying sentiment for Hughes in Illinois, and Senator Sherman agreed with me that there was. Of course, Sherman is Illinois' first choice, and I do not think Roosevelt can upset that state as he did four years ago.'

"Russel said he had gone to New York first on business and a private matter concerning his son's entering a bank in New York following his graduation from Illinois State University, and he returned this afternoon to New York to conclude his business there."

REV. ROBERT STEPHENS DIES AT HOME IN DANVILLE

Well Known Methodist Minster Had Spent Life of Great Usefulness— Last Work Uas With Preachers' Aid Society.

Rev. Robert Stephens passed away Monday at his home in Danville after an illness of several months induced by overwork. He was a man of remarkably sturdy frame; large and well formed he loomed up among his peers almost like Saul but he overtaxed his powers and the inevitable followed soon after. He had been in a precarious condition for some time but the final end came suddenly prostrating his family and immediate friends and relatives. He was at one time presiding elder of the West Jacksonville district and also served in the same capacity several times in other localities. He resided in this city for a short time but was glad to get back to Danville where his sons lived and where he had many ties.

He was born in Par, Cornwall, England, June 14, 1850 and was the son of honest and upright parents, poor but devout. When but 9 years old he was apprenticed to a ship building carpenter and worked at that trade till of age when he decide to sek his fortune in the new world and proceeded westward till he reached Clinton when he went to work as a section hand on a railroad. He was an earnest christian and desired to do something to advance the cause of the gospel and studied as he had oppportunity and was ever glad to do justice and tell of the ones who aided him when he was a hard working young man trying to get an education.

His devotion to the good cause soon won him recognition and he began to preach in small places and all the time was a hard student industriously storing his mind with useful knowledge. His career was truly remarkable. Without means and school advantages he nevertheless carved for himself an enviable position in the hall of fame and won a name which will long be remembered. He possessed a seemingly iron constitution and he thought there were no bounds to the labor he might accomplish. Many persons will date their conversion to the time they heard him preach and truly the common people heard him gladly.

His merits were speedily recognized by his superiors and he received important appointments for many years. At the time of his death he was secretary of the Preachers' Aid society which has set out to raise $500,000 for the purpose of pensioning disabled Methodist preachers and their widows. His industry and devotion were rewarded by gifts amounting to $200,000 and his success so pleased the higher powers that they decided to strike for $500,000, and employed him to go to work to raise the money and he at once set out for the desired goal. Had his life and health been spared he would no doubt have succeeded but the Master had another place for him.

He was a member of the international general board of the Metnodist Episcopal church which is now in session in conjunction with the quadrennial conference of the church being held at Syracuse, New York. He had been a member of the general conferences at Baltimore, Los Angeles and Indianapolis.
